

* Hymn 65 Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah

* Confession of Sin
Gracious God, our souls are restless until they find their rest in you.
We confess that we resist this rest. We frenzy ourselves with activity and rush past your presence.
We surround ourselves with sound and do not hear your voice. We fill our lives with productivity and miss your calling.
Turn us from our frenzy toward you where we can lay down all of our burdens and find rest in you.

* Assurance of Forgiveness

* Response 581
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, amen.

Moment for Reflection

Responding to the Word

* Affirmation of Faith Dr. Randy Kirby

The Church is the body of Christ.
Christ gives to the Church
all the gifts necessary to be his body.
The Church strives to demonstrate these gifts in its life as a community in the world.
The Church is to be a community of faith, entrusting itself to God alone, even at the risk of losing its life.
The Church is to be a community of hope, rejoicing in the promise that, in Christ, God is making a new creation.

The Church is to be a community of love, where sin is forgiven, reconciliation is accomplished, and the dividing walls of hostility are torn down.

The Church is to be a community of witness, pointing beyond itself through word and work to the good news of God's transforming grace.

Where Christ is, there is the true Church.

We affirm that the Church is faithful to Christ's mission, when it proclaims and hears the Word of God, administers and receives the Sacraments, and nurtures a covenant community of disciples of Christ.

The great ends of the Church are:
the proclamation of the gospel for the salvation of humankind;
the shelter, nurture, and spiritual fellowship of the children of God;
the maintenance of divine worship;
the preservation of the truth;
the promotion of social righteousness;
and the exhibition of the Kingdom of Heaven to the world.

Sacrament of Holy Communion

Invitation to the Lord's Table

Great Thanksgiving and the Lord's Prayer

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Toccata on Wedlock – God Is My Strong Salvation
Gordon Young

The living Christ encounters us in the ordinary elements of Communion. Christ extends the invitation to the Lord's Supper and is open to all – believers and doubters, young children and adults, members and non-members. To highlight this gracious welcome, only non-alcoholic juice is served, and gluten-free bread is available. If you would like to refrain from the feast, you may cross your arms, and a blessing will be offered. If you cannot come forward, a minister will serve you in your seat. If you feel so moved to respond, people often reply with "Amen" or "Thanks be to God."

*Those who are able are invited to stand.

Bold indicates words spoken in unison.

The flowers this morning are given by the Julie Steele Flower Fund to the glory of God and to welcome Teresa de Freitas, our new Director of Music Ministries.

Welcome Rev. Josh Musser Gritter

* Call to Worship Rev. Lara Musser Gritter
In our gathering from far-off distant places,
God is here.
In scripture, in song, and in the sacred calling of leaders,
Christ is here.
In our breaking of bread in communion,
the Spirit is here.
In all of our human acts of worship to the transcendent God,
the Triune God is in our midst.
Let us worship God together!
