Welcome

* Hymn 641 When in Our Music God Is Glorified

* Call to Worship

Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life.

Those who believe in me, even though they die they will live; and whoever lives and believes in me will never die.

Come to me, all you who labor and are overburdened, and I will give you rest."

Our help is in the name of the Lord, Who made heaven and earth.

Praise the Lord.

The Lord's name be praised!

Choral Anthem

A Song of Paul

music by Alfred Fedak, lyrics by John Bell. Selah Pub. 410-513

Should I rehearse with human voice the words which angels make their choice, devoid of love, my song resounds magnificent but empty. And should I preach with earnest tone and know whatever can be known, and move the hills by faith alone, if I lack love, I'm nothing.

In love is patience always found; for love kind hearts make common ground, from love, conceit and pride take flight, and jealousy is banished.

Love keeps no score of what's gone wrong, nor sings a pessimistic song, nor lets regret or guilt prolong, for love expects tomorrow.

Let strange and startling language cease, let tongues their ecstasy release, let knowledge come and go in peace; these things are not eternal.

For all the thought and skill we show are but a stage through which we grow; till, face to face with God, we'll know that love which lasts forever.

Prayer of Confession

Holy God, you see us as we are, and know our inmost thoughts.

We confess that we are unworthy of your gracious care. We forget that all life comes from you and that to you all life returns. We have not always sought or done your will. We have not always lived as your grateful children, nor loved as Christ loved us. Apart from you, we are nothing. Only your grace can sustain us.

Lord, in your mercy, forgive us, heal us, and make us whole. Set us free from our sin, and restore to us the joy of your salvation, now and forever. Amen.

Words of Remembrance

Michael Glasgow

Rev. Brian Burke

Prayer of Thanksgiving and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

* Affirmation of Faith

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence, he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and life everlasting. Amen.

* Hymn 689

When the Morning Stars Together
(unison stanzas 1,2,4; parts stanza 3)

* Commendation

Into your hands, O merciful Savior, we commend your servant, Tim. Acknowledge, we humbly pray, a sheep of your own fold, a lamb of your own flock, a sinner of your own redeeming. Receive him into the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints in light. Amen.

Timothy H Waugh

Timothy H Waugh, 69, of Princeton, West Virginia, passed from this life into life eternal on Thursday, February 8, 2024. The only child of Harper E. Waugh and Mary Louise Crotty Waugh, Tim was preceded in death by his parents.

An internationally acclaimed conductor, composer, and performance arts educator, Tim was a beloved figure in many performance mediums, including handbell, choral, church music, and musical theatre. Throughout his career, his passion for music and education inspired countless musicians, and he was a tireless champion for performance arts in the church, classroom, and community.

His continued work as a guest conductor and clinician for choral and handbell festivals followed a 33-year career in public school music education. He proudly called his choir and handbell students “my kids,” and they remained his kids for the rest of his life. Tim served many churches throughout Southern West Virginia and North Carolina from the time he was a youth, playing organ for church services at the early age of 12. At the time of his death, he was employed as the Director of Music at First Presbyterian Church, Salisbury, NC, where he was embraced by staff and congregation, adults and children alike.

In 2011, Tim founded Charlotte Bronze Handbell Ensemble, a professional community ensemble based in Charlotte, NC, and served as the group’s beloved conductor and artistic director until his passing.

A kidney transplant recipient as a result of Polycystic Kidney Disease (PKD), Tim was a determined advocate for organ donation. The kidney Tim received from a selfless live donor allowed his multitude of friends to continue enjoying his talent, teaching, wit, and delightfully quirky humor for 18 years longer than they otherwise would have had.
