

* Confession of Sin
Merciful and loving God,
you have called us to be your people
and claimed us for the service of Jesus Christ.
We confess that we have not lived up to our calling to proclaim the good news in word and deed.
We are quick to speak when we ought to listen,
and remain silent when it is time to speak.
We put too much faith in our own actions,
and fail to trust the strength of your Spirit.
O God, forgive our foolish and sinful ways.
Strengthen us anew to follow Christ's way in the world.
By your Holy Spirit, give us the grace we need to be faithful disciples and fulfill our common calling;
through Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior.

* Assurance of Forgiveness

* Response 581 GLORIA PATRI
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
And to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning,
Is now, and ever shall be,
World without end. Amen, amen.

Children's Message & Baptism

Scripture: Exodus 24:9-18

Scripture: Acts 1:1-11

Sermon Rev. Josh Musser Gritter

* Affirmation of Faith Dr. Randy Kirby
The Church is the body of Christ.
Christ gives to the Church
all the gifts necessary to be his body.
The Church strives to demonstrate these gifts
in its life as a community in the world.
The Church is to be a community of faith,
entrusting itself to God alone,
even at the risk of losing its life.
The Church is to be a community of hope,
rejoicing in the promise that, in Christ,
God is making a new creation.

The Church is to be a community of love,
where sin is forgiven, reconciliation is accomplished,
and the dividing walls of hostility are torn down.

The Church is to be a community of witness,
pointing beyond itself through word and work
to the good news of God's transforming grace.

Where Christ is, there is the true Church.
We affirm that the Church is faithful to Christ's mission,
when it proclaims and hears the Word of God,
administers and receives the Sacraments,
and nurtures a covenant community of disciples of Christ.

The great ends of the Church are:
the proclamation of the gospel
for the salvation of humankind;
the shelter, nurture, and spiritual fellowship
of the children of God;
the maintenance of divine worship;
the preservation of the truth;
the promotion of social righteousness;
and the exhibition of the Kingdom of Heaven to the world.
